

Criteria for Registration in Clinical Oncology

Any doctor can request to be registered in Clinical Oncology specialist if he/she fulfils ALL the following requirements:

1. Fully Registered with the Malaysian Medical Council with current Annual Practicing (APC), AND

2. A recognised postgraduate qualification

- 2.1 Master of Clinical Oncology, UM
- 2.2 Fellow of the Royal College of Radiologist (FRCR)
- 2.3 Fellow of the Faculty of Radiologists and Radiotherapists of the Royal College of Surgeons of Ireland (FFRCSI)
- 2.4 Diploma in Medical Radiotherapy (DMRT) United Kingdom, before 1.1.94
- 2.5 Any other equivalent qualifications as recommended by the Clinical Oncology Specialty Board on a case-to-case basis.

3. Completed specialty training in recognised centres

- 3.1 Basic Specialist Training shall be for a period of not less than 4 years in recognized training centres.
- 3.2 Post-Qualification Training shall be for a period of not less than one(1) year. Government doctors must be gazetted. Equivalent rules will be applicable to university medical lecturers.
- 3.3 An application that does not conform to the above requirement shall be reviewed on a case-to-case basis by the Clinical Oncology Specialty Board.

4. Evidence of satisfactory specialty training as supported by:

- 4.1 Evidence of satisfactory completion of the training programmes
- 4.2 Reports from supervisor (s) / trainer (s) on satisfactory achievement of different stages of training

5. Notwithstanding the above, the SSC may stipulate any conditions, including additional training or work experience, on the applicant if deemed necessary